

Fulton W. Marshall Jr.

Fulton W. Marshall Jr., 75, of Charlottesville, passed from this life on Wednesday, October 6, 2010, at the University of Virginia Medical Center.

He was born in Charlottesville on November 4, 1934, the son of the late Fulton W. Marshall Sr. and Mary Bell Harris.

He is survived by his wife, Vernetta P. Marshall, to whom he was married 51 years; two sons, Fulton Earl Marshall and his wife, Kari, of Poolesville, Maryland, and James Page Marshall and his wife, Kathie, of Maumelle, Arkansas; and 12 grandchildren.

He received a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing and a Master's Degree in Elementary and Secondary Education from the University of Arizona. He spent his life educating the children of Albemarle County, where he worked for 35 years. He taught at Crozet Elementary and Henley Middle Schools, and served as the principal of Yancey, Woodbrook and Greer Elementary Schools from 1967 until 2000.

Mr. Marshall served in the United States Air Force. He has been an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where he has served in many capacities, serving for a time as bishop. A great fan of University of Virginia athletics, he ushered basketball and football games for 33 years. Mr. Marshall attended the Miller School of Albemarle in his youth and has maintained a close tie with the school through the Miller School Alumni, acting as treasurer, and through serving as a member of the Miller School board of trustees for 13 years. He has also been involved as a member of the Lions and Elks clubs.

A funeral service will be conducted 10 a.m. Saturday, October 9, 2010, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1275 Timberwood Boulevard with Stake President Tom Carter officiating. Interment will follow at Monticello Memory Gardens.

The family will receive friends from 7 until 8 p.m. Friday, October 8, 2010, at the Hill and Wood Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Miller School Alumni Foundation Fund, P.O. Box 6995, Charlottesville, VA 22903.
